TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, CASH.

FRIDAY, NOV. 22, 1907.

Don't go bird hunting if you don't want to get shot. If you go alone you may shoot yourself.

The money stringency must be responsible for the failure of any more entries in the senatorial race.

The way that T. B. is being guarded by the Chas. domain will make him feel as though he is a member of the Russian royal family.

The news that Ex-Governor Hay was dined with the president is calculated to make the people of the South talk again about the stringency one.

They do say that the Jamestown exposition is going on in a blaze of glory in spite of the fact that it is about "busted." Nothing like making a big show now.

Expert rogues are at work in the state capital, but our friends are expected to contradict any report that a great haul of money has been taken from the safe in the lantern office.

When it comes to keeping in the lightning forkers can't be beat. It is understood the other day by a set of Ohio republicans will give his presidential "boom" a good deal of impetus.

The movement of the Tennessee legislature, advocating the nomination of a southerner on the democratic ticket for president is significant. The south is getting tired supporting candidates named by democrats in other sections who cannot carry their own states.

Our advertising patronage is dwindling down, and we will have to go back to the ready print trade in order to get some more advertising. We are willing to give a small margin of profit, but we cannot print all the paper, and some one must take the blame for it.

Take out her inside and run four pages all home print, until you need more room.

Courts martial drunkness in the army have steadily decreased year after year since the abolition of the court martial at army posts. In the year of the canton regiment, 1906, 146 cases before the courts martial were tried; in the year 1907, but 50 such cases.

The absence of the canton has been charged with causing desertions and with all kinds of sins except causing drunkness. For ridiculous absurdity committed by the advocates of the liquor traffic.

Recently there has been a good deal in the papers about Grover Cleveland. The venerable ex-president presents a striking contrast to the present occupant of the white house and some overzealous persons are advocating the former's nomination for president on the democratic ticket in 1912. However, we believe that Cleveland would refuse to run and it is better that he remain as he is, one of the most respected and esteemed men in the whole country.

President F. L. Pickens, of the Southern railroad, and Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, have been having another conference. When it comes to getting up in conference, Governor Glenn is a little "stuck."

Hayward's statement about the people of South Carolina in their attitude towards the railroad is the public feeling exactly. This state has been fortunate in not going into any hysteria over the situation but has taken things very calmly. In the meanwhile has been faring better than most of her neighbors.

Miss Estie Mutchwick, a beautiful young woman, has come to the United States. She is a native of a German woman who will be her ideal. She ought to come to Charleston. There are all sorts of rumors, but doubtless she would be able to find something better for her fate. There is no place like Charleston.

News and Courier. Miss Mutchwick cannot find her ideal in Charleston; we give her a cordial invitation to visit Union.

If she would change her name to Mutchwick "all sorts of ideals" would not be hard to hunt.

Mr. J. C. Resigs. Mr. John C. Cary, who has been treasurer and general manager of the Lockhart mills since 1905, has resigned. He is succeeded by Mr. T. Moore, a brother of Col. E. T. Moore, who has been successful. Mr. Cary had to resign on account of his health.

Bank Officers Indicted. Macon, Ga. November 19.—J. W. Cabaniss, president, and C. M. Orr, cashier of the Macon National Bank, were indicted by the grand jury this afternoon on charges of embezzlement, felony and misdemeanor. President Cabaniss is charged with embezzling $50,000 and Orr $30,000. The felony according to the indictment, consists in their having declared a dividend when the earnings of the bank did not warrant it, and the misdemeanor in borrowing $100,000 jointly without the consent of the directors. Neither President Cabaniss nor Orr had been arrested up to a late hour.

"Bugs" Raymond, who pitched for the Charleston baseball team last season, was run over and killed by a street car in Chicago Monday.

SAID THAT HE WAS INSANE.
